

MINIMUM TIMEKEEPING REQUIREMENTS FOR CWO DRIVEN NON-BASELINE WORK TO BE PERFORMED AT OFF-LAB FACILITIES

- A. For individuals operating as independent contractors with no employees and no plans to hire employees, and where the subject JPL Contract is the individual's only contract, the Contractor must maintain a weekly record of time expended in performance of the JPL Contract.
- B. For individuals with more than one contract, or contractors who have employees or who are contemplating hiring employees, the following payroll practices apply:
 - 1. Maintain records in compliance with 29 CFR 516.2(a), (b), and (c). (See page 2 of this form.)
 - 2. Maintain accountability for withholding and payment of all legally required payroll-related liabilities.
 - 3. Maintain an internal control system that protects the integrity of the payroll system.
 - 4. Maintain an accounting system that has the capability to segregate labor hours and resultant costs by contract and by job or work order when appropriate.
 - 5. In accordance with terms of the Special Provision entitled, "Timekeeping and Payments," (paragraph (g)) and the General Provision Article entitled, "Audit and Examination of Records - Negotiation," JPL may make or cause to be made an audit of any or all of the above-described records.
- C. The above practices do not apply to consultants or second-tier independent contract labor services procured by contractors. Consultants and second-tier independent contractors are not considered to be employees of the Contractor. If the Contract authorizes such services, these charges must be clearly defined on invoices as consultant, subcontractor, or other direct charges and not as employees. This distinction must be made on all other applicable Contract and Contract-related documents as well.
- D. By acceptance of this Contract, the Contractor certifies that its timekeeping practices meet JPL requirements.
